Article 2: Movement of Information

1. No Party may prevent a service supplier of another Party from transferring or processing information, including personal information, within or outside the Party's territory, where such activity is carried out in connection with the conduct of the service supplier's business.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a Party may adopt or maintain any measure that imposes conditions on the transfer of personally identifiable information, provided that the measure is necessary for the protection of personal privacy, and is not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on trade.
