 6. Each Party shall ensure that information set out in this Article is presented in a manner that is easy to use for SMEs. Each Party shall make the information available in English.
 7. No fee shall apply for access to the information provided pursuant to paragraphs 1 to 4 for any person in either Party.

Article X.2

SME Contact Points on SME Issues

1. The Parties hereby establish a SME Contact Point on SME Issues on each side.
2. The SME Contact Points on SME Issues shall:
 - (a) ensure that SME needs are taken into account in the implementation of the Agreement and consider ways to increase trade and investment opportunities for SMEs by strengthening cooperation on SME issues between the Parties;
 - (b) identify ways and exchange information for EU and Indonesian SMEs to take advantage of new opportunities under the Agreement;
 - (c) monitor the implementation of the provisions on information sharing of Article X.1 (Information Sharing) to ensure that the information provided by the Parties is up-to-date and relevant for SMEs. The SME Contact Points on SME issues may recommend to the [joint body or committee defined by the Agreement] additional information that the Parties may include in their websites or webpages to be maintained in accordance with Article X.1 (Information Sharing);
 - (d) raise any other matter of interest to SMEs in connection with the implementation of the Agreement, including:

- (i) exchanging information to assist the Parties in monitoring and implementing the Agreement as it relates to SMEs;
- (ii) participating, as appropriate, in the work of committees and working groups established by the Agreement, including the provisions on regulatory cooperation/regulatory coherence and non-tariff issues, and presenting to these committees and working groups specific issues of particular interest to SMEs in their areas, while avoiding duplication of work programs; and
- (iii) identifying and reaching possible solutions that are mutually acceptable in order to improve the ability of SMEs to engage in trade and investment among the Parties;

[Note: appropriate provisions for contacts with the SME Contact Points to be placed in the cooperation and institutional provisions in other areas of the FTA]

- (e) submit a regular report of its activities and make appropriate recommendations to the [joint body or committee defined by the Agreement] for its consideration;
 - (f) consider any other matter arising under the Agreement pertaining to SMEs as the Parties may agree.
3. SME Contact Points shall meet as necessary and shall carry out their work through the communication channels decided by the Parties, which may include electronic mail, videoconferencing, or other means.
 4. SME Contact Points may seek to collaborate with experts and external organisations, as appropriate, in carrying out its programs and activities.

Article X.3

[Placeholder Title]

The Parties recognise that in addition to the provisions in this [Chapter], there are other provisions in the Agreement that seek to enhance cooperation between the Parties on SME issues or that otherwise may be of particular benefit to SMEs.
